Autism is a way of being.

We use routine and structure to find calm in a chaotic world.

Our senses can be heightened or dimmed.

Autism is an identity, a culture rich with distinctive language, humour, food, and ways of being in the world.

We are loyal, honest, determined, & selectively social.

Takiwātanga: In our own space and time.

Autistics experience the world INTENSELY

We LOVE our favourite things.

REPETITION SQUEEZES MORE JOY.

We feel things others don't and express things others won't.
